Dear Pelly

I forward herewith a copy of a letter I have received from the British Council in which an offer has been made to pay the expenses (less expenses for the journey to the U.K. and back) of a visitor from Bahrain or one of the other Gulf States.

2. So far as Bahrain is concerned have you anybody you can suggest? I can only think of Ahmed Omran or some English-knowing merchant such as Hussain Yateem or Khalifah bin Abdul Rahman al Qosaibi.

3. Owing to their inexperience I am not consulting Andrew and Stobart. If you think that the funds allotted would be more profitably expended on a visitor from Kuwait please advise me accordingly. The only possible visitor from Muscat would, I think, be Saiyid Tariq and as he is not concerned with education or trade and the Sultan probably distrusts him or at any rate does not make full use of his abilities I do not at present feel inclined to suggest that he should go.

Yours very

THE BRITISH COUNCIL

3, Hanover Street,
London, W.1.

Ref. GEN/320/2. By Air Mail.

14th April, 1948.

Dear Sir Rupert Hay,

British Council Visitors, 1948/49.

1. I am writing to inform you that in the British Council Budget for 1948/49 the sum of £150 (one hundred and fifty pounds) has been allocated towards the expenses of a visitor from Bahrain, or from any of the territories with which you are concerned in the Persian Gulf.

2. This sum is sufficient to cover a visit and conducted tour in the U.K. for about six weeks, the British Council being responsible for all expenses and arrangements, but it does not cover any fares to or from the U.K.

3. Apart from general sight-seeing and visiting, the British Council Visitors' Department is able to arrange, through its staff and through its Advisory Committees, for the visitor to meet the leading British representatives of his own profession or trade and to visit any special institutions in which he is interested. In recent years the British Council has received a considerable number of visitors from Middle East countries, and as a general rule these visits are much appreciated and have a valuable influence.

4. As you are doubtless aware, a visitor, to justify subsidization by the British Council, should be a person of standing in his profession or trade and likely to exert in his own sphere a considerable influence which may be strengthened and widened by a visit to the U.K.. It is very desirable that he should have a good or sufficient knowledge of English to get the best out of his contacts and visits in the U.K.

5. For your information I enclose a copy of a form which we ask our overseas Representatives to have filled in for any visitors recommended by them. It is not essential that this form should be filled in by any visitor recommended by you, but we should naturally be grateful for some information on the post, influence and chief interests of any person nominated by you, particularly in order to allow us to have some standard of comparison with other Middle East visitors.

6. These visits are costly, and the British Council much regrets that it cannot this year offer to pay the fares to and from the U.K.. We very much hope that you may be able to recommend a visitor who would appreciate and profit by such a visit, and who would also be able to pay his own fares.

7. I should remind you that academic visits should be arranged before early June or after mid September and school teachers should not come in August. Owing to the Olympic Games this year in London at the beginning of August, this month is also particularly difficult in which to find accommodation.

Lt. Col. Sir Rupert Hay, K.C.I.E.,
The Political Representative,
Bahrain,
Persian Gulf.

8. In view of the probability that you would wish a visitor from Bahrain to come to England in the summer months, we should be grateful for any nominations you would be kind enough to make at your earliest convenience, and we shall be most grateful for ~~any~~ your advice and assistance in this matter.

Yours ever,

Sd. R.M. Beavan,
Assistant Director,
Middle East Department.

Dear Belgrave,

(4)

I enclose a copy of a letter from the Assistant Director, Middle East Department of the British Council to Sir Rupert Hay, and its enclosure. I spoke to you about this subject and we agreed that Shaikh Khalifa bin Mohd. should be nominated as the visitor to Great Britain under the British Council scheme. Would you kindly fill up the form for him and return it to me as soon as possible? Would you also kindly confirm that Shaikh Khalifa's fares to and from the United Kingdom will be the liability of the Bahrain Government? You will doubtless arrange that the dates proposed for his visit do not clash with those of His Highness' absence during the summer.

Yours sincerely,

BAHADUR RECEIPT.
64. Date 23. 5. 48.

THE BRITISH COUNCIL

BEIRUT
28TH APRIL, 1948

My dear Sir Rupert,

I have received a copy of a circular letter GEN/320/2 of April 14th from the Council to you on the subject of visitors to England.

2. This letter has prompted me to make a suggestion which I trust you will forgive me for intruding on you but the mail takes so long for the exchange of correspondence. It seemed to me that the Secretary of the Mansama Municipality, Sadiq (I think) by name, was a man exercising considerable authority and worthy of support and would be a suitable person to visit England did an opportunity arise. The Secretary of the Muharrarq Municipality is younger - probably more impressionable but he had not last November been confirmed in his appointment. Naturally I make the suggestion in deference to the Adviser's opinion.

3. I can think of no one from Kuwait, my impression being that they were all sufficiently wealthy to provide for any visit they wanted. I think too that any visit for technical purposes such as from the newly reformed Post Office would preferably be missions from the Governments concerned.

4. I am hoping that the inclusion of one or two headmasters from Bahrain may be possible for a course during the summer but we have had no news of it. If it does not take place this year - next year I might be in England myself and give them some help.

5. You may rest assured that whoever is chosen will be given a very good welcome and be given every opportunity of visiting places. It has in my experience always been well done.

Yours sincerely,

Sd/- R.W. Highwood
Representative, Lebanon.

Dear Pelly,

With reference to your D.O. No. C/L-21 dated 18th May 1948, I enquired from His Highness whether he approved of Shaikh Khalifah bin Mohamed being nominated as a visitor to Great Britain and he approved of the suggestion. Shaikh Khalifah will be very pleased to accept the invitation.

The most suitable time for Shaikh Khalifah's visit, as far as we are concerned, would be from about the middle of June till about the end of July. If these dates will suit the British Council we will apply for an air passage at once.

It is understood that the Bahrain Government will pay for the air passage to and from Great Britain.

.... I enclose the form giving details about Shaikh Khalifah.

Dear Sir Rupert,

In reply to your telegram of the 5th June, addressed to Beavan and concerning Shaikh Khalifah, we cabled you on the 11th June as follows:-

"Welcome Shaikh Khalifah's visit can arrange six weeks programme early July confirm arrival date earliest"

2. We have now received your letter of the 5th June (No. 927-S) enclosing his Proposal Form, and are working on his programme. We should like to confirm that the British Council will pay his expenses up to £150, to cover accommodation, rail travel in the U.K., and motor transport as necessary.

3. The dates given in our cable do not exactly coincide with your proposal, but they are the only ones which allow us time to arrange a suitable programme, as mid-June would be a little too early for his arrival. It is essential, on the other hand, that he should complete the judicial part of his programme by the end of July, when the courts go into recess. We very much welcome your proposal in principle, and trust that the slight postponement of the visit will not be untoward.

Dear Sir Rupert,

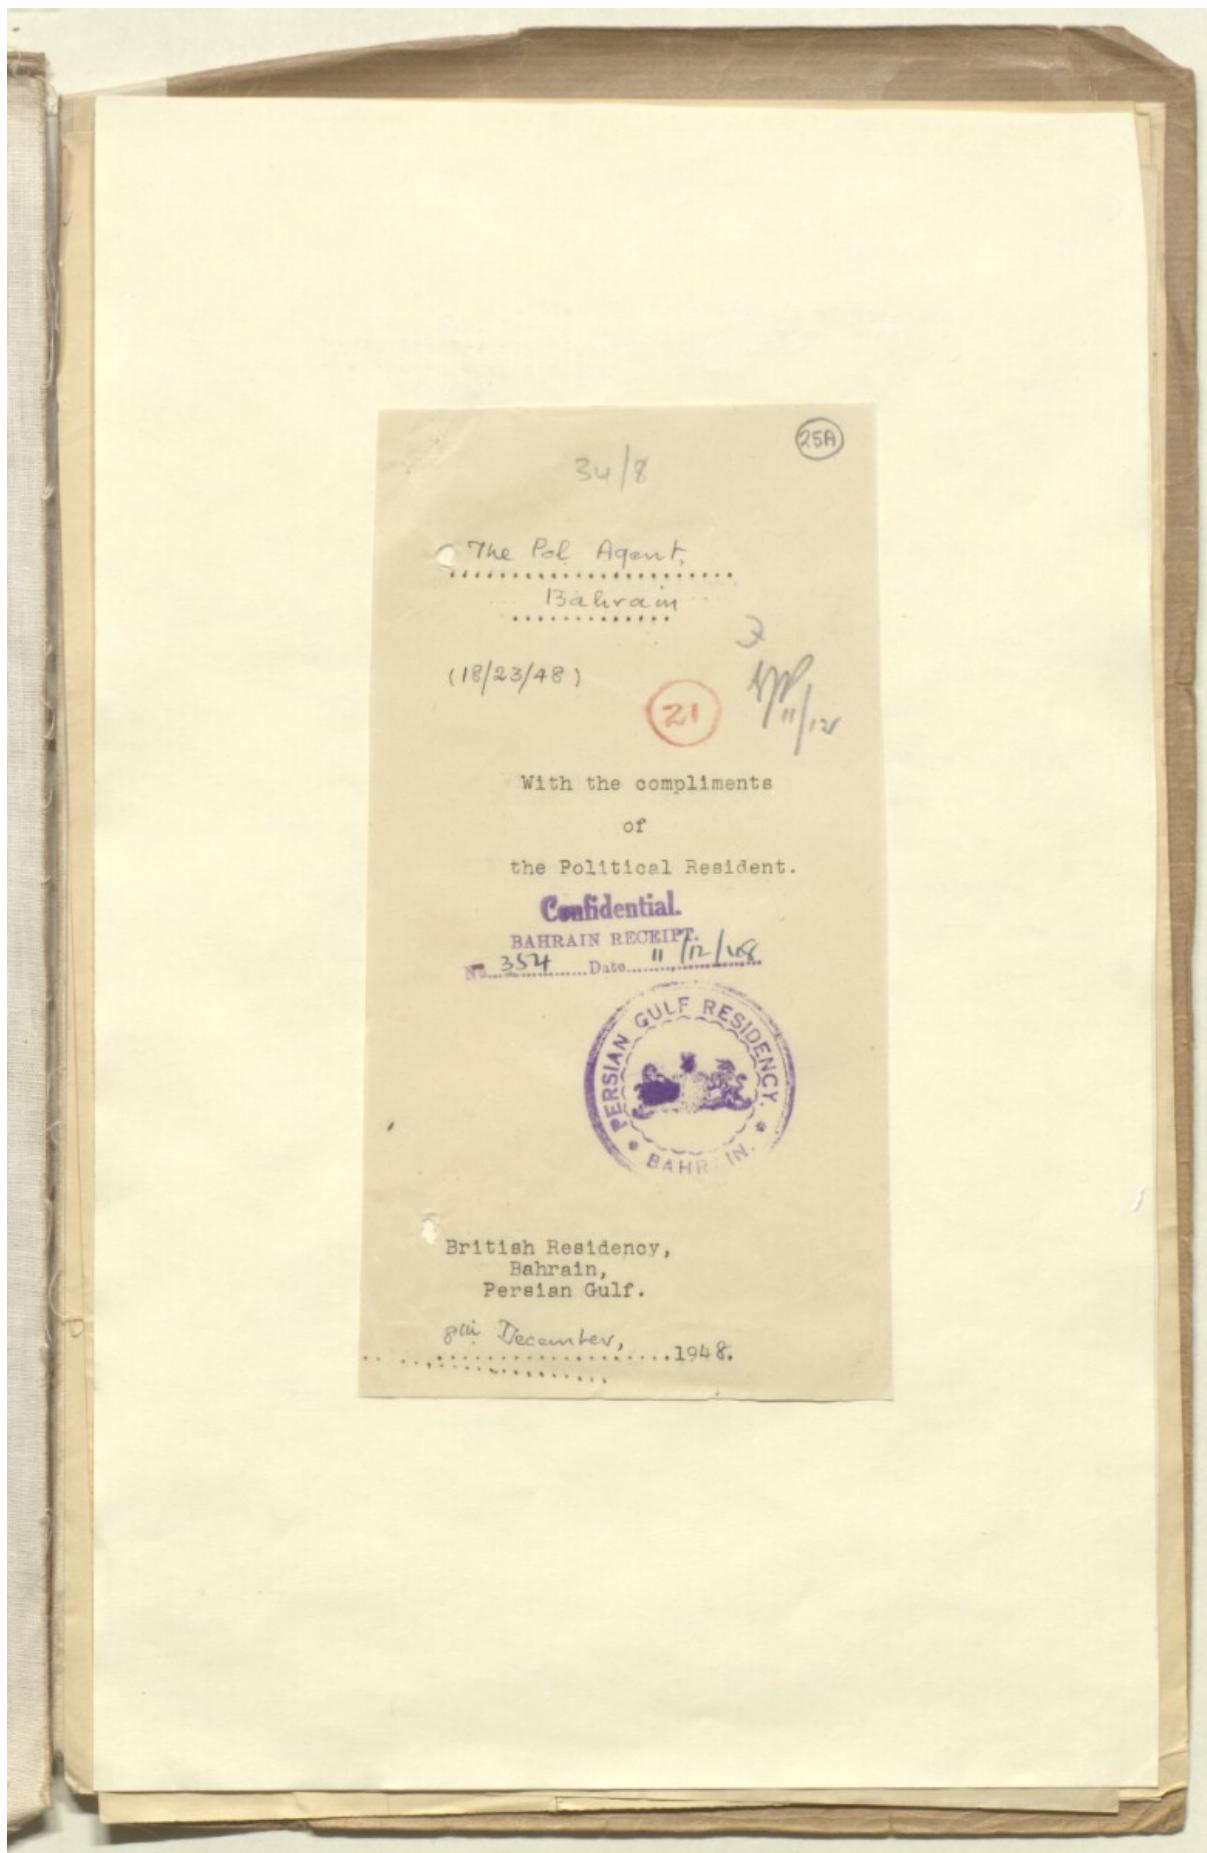

The general impression made on Shaikh Khalifah bin Mohammed by his visit to the United Kingdom was that the spirit of the people there is very high despite their difficulties and he was impressed by the "civilisation". He expressed gratitude to the British Council for the excellence of their arrangements and said that he was well and fittingly received by all others whom he met while carrying out his programme. He was particularly struck during his study of police work with the latest methods of crime detection and with the efficiency, economy in man power, and unobtrusiveness afforded by the proper use of motor transport and radio by the police. Some of the ideas he obtained on this and kindred subjects seem a bit advanced for introduction in Bahrain; but I am sure the visit was successful generally in broadening Shaikh Khalifah's outlook and particularly in giving him an idea as to how a police force ought to be run. This is in reply to your semi-official letter No.(18/9/48), dated the 29th October, 1948.

VISIT OF SHAIKH
KHALIFAH MUHAMMAD.

1. Many thanks for your (18/11/48) of 17th November and the enclosed report from the Political Agent, Bahrain. We were delighted to learn that Shaikh Khalifah had enjoyed and profited from his visit, and we hope he obtained the information on police work that he required.
2. All reports from Council Officers and others who met him in London and in the other towns which he visited in Great Britain agree that Shaikh Khalifah was an interested and co-operative visitor and a very charming and appreciative person. Your excellent choice and our efforts seem to have been well justified.
